

CHICAGO WEEK 2025
FEBRUARY 22 – MARCH 1
JACKSON HOLE, WY

Bordered by the jagged peaks of the Tetons, Jackson Hole is a valley and wilderness recreation area in western Wyoming. Featuring two mountains, Après Vous and Rendezvous, Jackson Hole Mountain Resort is known for its gorgeous scenery and challenging terrain, including the infamous Corbet's Couloir (pictured on the right), which towers over the rest of the resort and has people testing their wits every winter.

Half of the terrain is rated expert, 40% intermediate, and only 10% beginner. The intermediate terrain is primarily on south-facing Après Vous Mountain, while Rendezvous Mountain has Jackson Hole's more advanced terrain, including bowls, glades, and chutes. At over 4,000 vertical feet of skiing, Jackson Hole boasts one of the greatest continuous inbounds rises in the U.S.

MOUNTAIN FACTS

Top Elevation: 10,450 ft

Base Elevation: 6,311 ft

Vertical Drop: 4,139 ft

SKI AREA

Skiable Acres:

2,500 acres inbounds and 3,000 acres back country

Number of Runs: 116

- Beginner 10%
- Intermediate 40%
- ◆ Advanced/Expert 50%

Lift System: 17

- 1 tram, 2 gondolas
- 10 chairs
- 5 high-speed quads
- 4 quads
- 1 double
- 2 magic carpets
- 1 rope tow

Longest Run: 4.5 miles

Average Annual Snowfall: 459"

Terrain Parks: 2

Snowmaking: 160 acres

Après Ski/Dining & More: You can't beat the Jackson Hole area for things to do. There is an array of delicious restaurants, breweries, music, and shopping in Town Square within walking distance from our lodging properties. Check out a day trip to Yellowstone, snowmobiling, visit the National Elk Refuge, or the National Museum of Wildlife Art right in town! Two other nearby ski areas you may consider skiing are Grand Targee and Snow King.

Join us for a great week of skiing, fun, and making new friends!